TWENTY-THERE of the thirty-seven States stands pledged, by their present attitude, to the election of a Democratic President in 1876.

COMPARED with the Presidential election of 1872, the result last Tuesday in only seven States-Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois-showed a change of 530,000 votes.

Cutting Out Work for the Short

Republican Committees Rather Tardy.

Appropriations District Government WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 .- It was exseted that the House Committee on Ap-opriations would hold a meeting to-day, to commence the work of preparing the regular appropriation bills, in advance of the assembling of Congress, but no quorum was present. Garfield, Starkweather and O'Neill are now here, and Whitler, of New York, and Hall, of Maine, will arrive tonight. A majority of the committee will undoubtedly be here this week, when the estimates of the various departments will be distributed to the individual members, who will proceed to prepare the bills committed to their respective charge.

The Senate Committee on Appropriations will assemble here on the 15th, with a view to laying out their work, and making detailed examinations of the various features of the civil service, so as to be prepared to act promptly upon the annual appropriation bills as soon as they are re-ceived from the House. Senator Morrill, of Maine, chairman of this committee, arrived last night, and has taken quarters for the jwinter. He will also devote much time, between now and the month, to the work of completing the draft for a new form of government for the District of Columbia, the main features of which have been already agreed upon by the special committee appointed last session for that purpose, con-sisting of himself and Senator Hamilton, of Maryland, and Representatives E. R. Hoar, of Massachusetts, and Mitchell, of Wisconsin.
